Ostriches Cheaper These Days.
It helps one to realize the South African slump in ostriches, as shown by the sale of a full-grown bird for three pence at Grahamstown, when one recalls former prices. In the early days of ostrich farming, a chick newly out of the egg would sometimes fetch £10, and £500 has been paid for a good pair of grown birds. But those were the days when one plucking of a single bird would bring in £25, and of late years prices have not ruled so high—you could get quite a good pair of ostriches for £12. Ostrich farming dates from about 1867, and brought many a pioneer a fortune when it first began.—London Chronicle.

BIG CIRCUS ZOO DUE HERE SOON

"Baldy" and "Tango," Biggest and Tallest Members of the Ringing Zoo.
Because they are introducing more new features than ever before in the history of their circus, Ringing Brothers have termed the present year's tour a "season of novelty and innovations."

The program opens with the biggest and most magnificent spectacle ever traveled in America. This production tells the story of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. It is divided into four acts and presented upon a stage of mammoth proportions.

The spectacle is given in the main tent and precedes two hours of acrobatic display, which introduces hundreds of artists of skill and daring. Finally 90 per cent of these performers are making their first tour of America. Almost every country on the face of the globe is represented among the acrobats, equestrians, wire walkers, equilibrists, acrobats, jugglers and other champions. There are 50 clowns, including the most noted of European pantomimists. In addition is presented a complete dumb animal circus of more than a hundred trained beasts of the plain and jungle, together with a brilliant horse show and speed tournaments of unusual novelty. Ringing Brothers will exhibit here Saturday, October 2.—Adv.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fractures of the bone, toothache, neuralgia or rheumatism can be relieved by applying Ballard's Snow Liniment. It should be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power restores the pain, reduces swelling and restores natural conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Owl Drug Store.—Adv.
